Foreword

The path which brought us from the past was fairly straight, as is the present one, paved by our parents and teachers.

However, the routes ahead are pointing in all different directions. Many are constructed so that the traveler cannot see what lies behind the next door. The choice of the right path toward the future is the responsibility of each of us.

With these things in mind, we present the 1971 LION, hoping that through this book we have captured the memorable events of the past year.

Mrs. Ruth Miller

Dedication

To you for your understanding, assistance and encouragement to us in sports; to you for your so generous sacrifice of many long hours after school and on week-ends — to you, Mrs. Miller, we proudly dedicate the 1971 LION.

Alma Mater

SING FOR THE GOLD, WHITE, AND BLUE, WAVING FOREVER; PRIDE OF OUR GENERAL BROWN, MAY WE FAIL NEVER,
TO GIVE HER PRAISES THROUGH VICTORY OR LOSS, STAND ALWAYS BY HER.

ON TO THE GOALS WE'VE SET, SHE'LL GUIDE US EVER;
WE'LL SING A SONG FOR OUR COLORS TODAY,
CHEER FOR THE TEAMS AT PLAY,
PROUDLY WE STAND FOR THIS, OUR OWN HIGH SCHOOL.

When I first arrived in Brownville, I was really surprised. My city, Matsuyama, is a small city in Japan, and located on Shikoku Island. But its population is about 300,000 people. Matsuyama is in the southern part of Japan. It is very cold in Brownville compared with my city. I have never experienced this cold weather. In Matsuyama the lowest temperature is about 30° F and the highest is about 95 degrees F. But, I think I am getting used to this weather little by little and now I am enjoying snow and ice.

My school is Matsuyama Senior High School. There are 1500 students, and it was founded 92 years ago. I have noticed that the school life at General Brown is much different from that in my Japanese school. At school we have a uniform. Girls are not allowed to wear make up. In Japan I was taking 11 subjects, but here I am taking only 5. I think the school work here is easier than in Japan except that I have problems in English. In Japan we have to go to school on Saturday, too. American students are very lucky.

I am very glad to come here and to enjoy my American life. Everybody is nice to me. I am always grateful to everybody. I shall never forget the great times I have had at G.B.

The Road Goodbye

A black and white photograph of a person walking away on a path in a rural landscape. The person is seen from behind, walking on a dirt path that leads into a field. In the background, there is a line of trees and a fence. The overall mood is contemplative and nostalgic.

The road I took was named Goodbye
The path looked strange. I wondered why
It left familiar things behind.
A hand caught mine . . . I paid no mind.

The stranger never once did say
Just what had brought him on my way.
On we went, and some afraid
I wished I hadn't come, but stayed.

All the friends that I once knew
Took a road named Goodbye too.
There were no two roads just the same
Though all were called Goodbye by name.

The road went on; we went on too,
And I was sad, for then I knew
That never could I be the same
Having walked down Goodbye Land.

And though I couldn't understand
We walked together hand in hand.
We said no words, but just walked on,
I thought of things now past and gone.

I thought of games I'd lost and won,
I thought of all the things I'd done,
I thought of those I loved and cared,
Of times we'd had, of things we'd shared.

I thought of those I'd come to know.
Just knowing them — they'd helped me so.
I thought of things, of tears I'd shed . . .
Those same things now brought smiles instead.

The tasks I'd done, those left to do,
I wondered how I'd make it through
When something inside seems to say,
"The best you can from day to day."

The way was rough; I knew the score,
It never ends . . . there's always more.
But now I know that all in all
Each thing in its own place will fall.

I thought of all the happy days,
The sad ones now just seemed a haze,
And in a flash I came to see
How much the past had meant to me.

We walked along — I wondered where
The future led and what was there.
The past still echoed from behind
I was its, and it was mine.

But in my heart was still a fear,
And in my eye a shining tear;
Yet on my face there was a smile,
And we walked forward all the while.

I walked along the road Goodbye.
I looked back once . . . I heaved a sigh.
Then I remembered at my side —
My silent, but my constant guide.

The stranger's hand I felt in mine.
I looked into his face this time.
I asked his name — he turned just so,
He smiled and said, "I'm called Hello."

"So sorry"
Best of luck to a great bus driver and with all the "male"
bus drivers.

So sorry
about luck to the best bus driver I have ever had. Hope you drive
this bus next year.
